

We will need to ask for some information about you.

A guardian can also provide information.

Any information you give us will be kept safe.

The information you provide will help us to support you.

You can tell us whatever you feel would be helpful for us to know.

It is helpful for us to know how you like to communicate.

If you want to ask us a question you or your guardian can contact us.